Odyssey Manager™: Incredible Odyssey tours are managed by our in-house Indian Odyssey Managers, trained to serve foreign guests based on the guests' preference, assisted by the monument guides at certain monuments. From receiving the guests from airport till their departure, Odyssey Manager™ accompanies our guests around 8-12 hours daily, to make sure all the services are provided as per itinerary and to solve the contingencies that might arise along the journey. Odyssey Manager can assist changes in itinerary or add-on visits along the way if feasible.

Golden Triangle: Golden Triangle of India covers three most beautiful and captivating cities of the country. Delhi (the capital of India), Agra (the city of Taj) and Jaipur (the land of Rajput kings). These cities are undoubtedly the epitomes of Indian cultural, historical and architectural heritage and have all been the capitals of the princely states in the past. The blessed experience of viewing the world-famous monument of Shahjahan's love, Taj Mahal, the imperial, elegant and imposing buildings of Lutyens' New Delhi and the regal splendor of the desert city of Jaipur will certainly leave an indelible expression in the deepest recesses of your heart.

ITINERARY

Day 01: ARRIVE DELHI – AGRA Vistara Airlines – UK 116 SIN 0930 – DEL 1245 – 210 km, 4.30 hours drive D

Fly to Delhi, on arrival drive to Agra. In the 16th and 17th century Agra was the capital of India. Most of its monuments and forts are constructed in that era.

Day 02: AGRA – JAIPUR (3 UNESCO World Heritage Sites) 235 km, 5 hours, drive BLD

Early morning, visit one of the 7 wonder of the World, Taj Mahal also the first UNESCO World Heritage site, the beautiful white marble architecture was built by Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan in memory of his beloved wife Mumtaz Mahal, died during the birth of their 14th child. Visit the second UNESCO World Heritage Site Agra Fort, the crescent shaped fort was commissioned and construction with deep moats surrounding the outer 2.4 km wall facing the river and provide good view of Taj Mahal. The fort was built by Great Emperor Akbar in 1565 A.D. On completion visit shops with craftsman working on marble inlay and carpet weaving. After lunch, drive to Jaipur, en route visiting the third UNESCO World Heritage monument of Fatehpur Sikri (the City of Victory), built during the second half of the 16th century by the Emperor Akbar, it was the capital of the Mughal Empire for 10 years. Drive to Jaipur and check in your hotel.

Day 03: JAIPUR EXCURSION (3 World Heritage Sites) BLD

Drive to Hawa Mahal for photo stop and then driver to visit 4th UNESCO World Heritage site, Amber Fort, the romantic Rajasthani Fort Palace. The rugged, time-ravaged walls of the Fort may look unimpressive, but the interiors are the virtual paradise. Miniatures painted on the walls depict hunting and war scenes, apart from festivals. Precious stones and mirrors are embedded into the plaster. Visit Jag Mandir or the Hall of Victory and famed Sheesh Mahal - a room with all the walls and ceiling embedded with glittering mirror pieces, specially imported from Belgium. Visit semi-precious stone cutting and Rajasthani handicraft center.

After lunch, we drive to 5th UNESCO World Site walled Jaipur City visiting Maharaja's City Palace, the former Royal residence, part of it converted into a museum. A small portion of the Palace is still used by the Royal family of Jaipur. Built in the style of a fortified campus, the palace covers almost one-seventh in area of the city. One of the major attractions in the museum is the portion known as Armory Museum housing an impressive array of weaponry-pistols, blunderbusses, flintlocks, swords, rifles and daggers. The royal families of Jaipur once used most of these weapons. Just outside the Palace we visit 6th UNESCO World Heritage Site, Jantar Mantar - the largest stone and marble crafted observatory in the world. This observatory has 17 large instruments and most are still in working condition.
